I think that should be fine. We can hold a space for him as we proceed with production. Thanks for checking with him, Ed.

Andi/Deb:

Just talked to Eric with Amec/FW. He said that he could get an article submitted by the end of the week for the BB. Does that work for you? He obviously had not drafted it yet and he's also very busy running this project.

Let me know end of the week works for you,

Ed
